Celebrating Burns Night

Join Club Vivanova in partnership with the British Association of Monaco (BAM) for a celebration marking the life and work and the anniversary of the birth of Robbie Burns in 1759. The first Burns supper was held in July 1801 when nine of Burns' close friends got together to mark the fifth anniversary of their friend's death.

Our event this year has been upgraded from previous editions with a 7pm Prosecco aperitif, a newly adapted menu including cockaleekie soup, a main course of haggis or a vegetarian haggis option and cranachan dessert.

Celebrating Burns Night In traditional style, we will begin dinner with the Selkirk Grace. Guests will then enjoy a hearty feast. Our Chieftain MacSween haggis will be piped in, with a performance of Address to a Haggis, to be served with neeps and tatties, and toasted with drams of Aberfeldy 12 year old Single Malt Scotch Whisky.

International white and red wines will be served throughout the meal, with mineral waters and finishing with coffee and Scottish shortcake.

A raffle during the evening to raise funds for BAM's charitable causes, followed by a Cranachan dessert, after which the Immortal Memory by Burns will be recited followed by a Toast to the Lassies, then a Reply from the Lassies, before the final Burns recital is performed. To end this special night, everyone standing will join in to Auld Lang Syne to be followed by a live performance from an Edinburgh Ceilidh Band "Callanish" flown in specially and simple Scottish Country Dancing for all.

Dress code is black tie / kilt and a touch of tartan for ladies (optional).

Should you wish to stay overnight we have special room rates in the Fairmont Hotel; please specify when you book.
